

The 2007 ZooBoo was a spooktacular success. Unseasonably warm October days brought 5,100 trick-or-treaters to the Merry-Not-Scary four-day event. Children in all kinds of costumes help set a record-setting attendance. The girls in Brockport Girl Scout Troop No. 258 won the Merry-Not-ScaryCrow contest with their “Scarecrow Collage.” The four-day event was a great way for families to have a safe Halloween. The event’s presenting sponsor was Walmart.
